

Joris Vanpoucke

°1983, Hove, Belgium lives and works in Antwerp, Belgium represented by DMW Gallery

Training

2002-2007 St-Lucas, KdG University College; Master Degree with honours in illustration – graphic design
2007-2008 Selected for Art extension Project
2008-2009 Sponsored internship and residency in Berlin
2009-2010 Royal Academy of Antwerp, painting
2012-2013 St-Lucas, KdG University College, MaNaMa, research

Grants and Prizes

2011 Drawing contest 'De Grote Prijs Tekenkunst Ronse', Laureate, third prize
2011 Drawing contest 'Prijs Tekenkunst Heist o/d Berg', Laureate, second prize
2007 Selected for Art Extension Project; internship and residency in Berlin

Exhibitions (solo and group, selection)

2020 solo show, DMW Gallery, Antwerp
2020 solo show, Gerhard Hofland Gallery, Amsterdam
2020 ... but morning never came, solo show, Gevaertsdreef.01, Oudenaarde
2020 My Mam's Name Isn't Carol, duo show with Bram Kinsbergen, D'apostrof, Meigem

2019 Art on paper, duo show with DenitsaTodorova, Bozar Brussels
The Knight has fallen, duo show with Tim Volckaert at DMW Art Space, Antwerp

2018 Selection of paintings and drawings during Antwerp open studio days (September)
The Artist's studio, group exhibition at Z33, Hasselt (July)

A Whole Variety, group exhibition at temporary artspace LWM18, Antwerp (May) Popo-caté-petl, group exhibition at Veilingshuis Bernaerts, Antwerp (May)

2017 Exhibition preview & publication 'Paradigmata', Antwerp (December)

Media

2020 Gallery viewer, 10 Belgische/Vlaamse kunstenaars, Oscar van Gelderen
De Morgen, Welke andere belegging schenkt je zo veel geluk?, 28 March